What is the IDG Dressage Group?

The IDG Dressage Group (formally known as Isis Dressage Group) was founded in 1985. Dressage is the basis of all riding and the purpose of the Group is to support riders and their equine partners.

Why join the Supporters Club?

The main activities of the Group are: training and competition experience. But people who no longer ride can still be involved and benefit from involvement with shows, social events and training events. And as a Supporter, your input will be invaluable:

- A regular newsletter keeps you up to date with events and other members.
- IDG Dressage Emails notify you of up and coming events and of course email is the best way of giving input to the Group.
- IDG Dressage website with news, show dates and useful links (www.idgdressage.co.uk)
- Shows – IDG Dressage shows are not affiliated to British Dressage but we try to use BD Listed Judges. Shows are open to members and non-members. You may be interested in helping with writing, stewarding, scoring or just enjoying the social aspect.
- Be Part of the Team – we send teams to British Riding Club events and BD Team Quest competitions. Extra pairs of hands are essential to keeping the team operating efficiently.
- IDG Dressage Training Events – you may not be riding, but you can still watch or help at regular clinics or special training events such as Summer Camp. You will be entitled to Members' rates at non-riding training events such as the popular plaiting clinics we ran in 2014.
- IDG Dressage Social Events – run during the year, particularly the Members' Only show held in the Summer and the Christmas Special. The AGM, usually held in February, is a place to catch up with friends over the winter months.
- IDG Dressage Facebook Page – this a great is a way of keeping in touch with other members or hearing about what is going on.

Although the Supporters Club is not subscribed to British Riding Clubs, you can still participate at BRC events run by IDG Dressage Group.
